

DONATE to RAISE Society

By donating to RAISE, you will support our range of support, consultation and educational services for families with children diagnosed on the autism spectrum throughout BC.

Your support will enable RAISE to:

- enhance the well-being of individuals with ASD and their families
- provide autism intervention, education and support services to children and their families
- supply information to the general public about ASD and related research, intervention and support

Your donation is critical to maintaining the high quality of services and supports we offer to children and their families. Thank you for supporting RAISE!
